Most of the “practical” work of administering and assisting at the liturgy of Holy Communion is done by (as their name implies) the ‘Liturgical Assistants’ (LAs).

All LAs are therefore invited to a morning at Wollaston. The aim is to give LAs from across the Diocese a chance to come and ask questions, discuss and compare ‘practice’, refresh their knowledge, understanding and learn a little more with and from each other about the vitally important ministry all LAs offer to the people of God in Perth.’

To register for the day, please visit www.perth.anglican.org/events or contact Barbara McDonald at Wollaston Theological College T: 08 9425 7272.

'Theology is not just a set of ideas. Theology makes possible a new way of seeing ourselves, others and the world' (McGrath, 2017, p. 85).

This interactive session will examine how Christian theology can offer a way of seeing ourselves and others. There will be input but the three-hour session will not be a lecture. We'll use everyday language to ponder some of the sources and ideas of contemporary Christian faith.

The aim of the session is to better equip participants to engage in further theological discussions.

Tea/coffee on arrival and a sumptuous morning tea provided.

For more information or to register for Theology for non-theologians, please visit www.perth.anglican.org/events or contact Barbara McDonald at Wollaston Theological College, bmcDonald@perth.anglican.org or call 08 9425 7272.

Presenter: Dr Anne Harris

Anne is an experienced and award-winning educator. Currently working as an Education and Training Project Officer at Wollaston Theological College, she lectured in Religious Studies at Edith Cowan University for 17 years. Prior to that, she was a secondary school teacher.

MESSENGER

The Anglican Messenger magazine is a well-established publication for the Diocese of Perth, operating since 1965.

A cost effect medium the Messenger is a great place to advertise to the audience that makes up the Christian family in Western Australia. It is printed and widely distributed to agencies, schools and parishes and individual subscribers throughout Australia.

Please contact Nina at nbiggs@perth.anglican.org for a copy of the rate card and deadlines for submitting adverts.

Hymn books required

St Bartholomew's House need 12 hymn books, either Together in Song or Australian Hymn Book.

If you have some in your Parish that are no longer being used, we would be very grateful to receive them and happy to arrange collection.

Discernment to the Ordained Ministry

In every generation the Church looks for those for whom Christ's insistent call 'disturbs their settled lives'. On behalf of the Church, the Archbishop's Examining Chaplains discern whether that call might be to ordained ministry.

If there are members of your worshipping Community, school or agency who feel they might be called to ordained ministry please invite them to make contact with the diocesan Vocations Advocate, the Reverend Patrick King (vocations@perth.anglican.org).

The next Enquirers' Programme begins in October 2017.

The sessions will include:

- Professional Standards- Policies and Procedures;
- The Royal Commission and 'why Churches?'
- The Dynamics of Child Sexual Abuse;
- Typology of offenders;
- The Grooming Process;
- Empowering Children.

Bookings can be made on-line at:
