Vocations Sunday - Save the Date

Date: Sunday 02 July 2017

This year Archbishop's Examining Chaplains and the Diocesan Vocations Advocate are encouraging all worshipping communities to put aside one day on which to reflect particularly on the theme of calling and vocation. This may have a focus on discerning a call to ordained ministry – but is a chance also to reflect on the wider Christian vocation to live out our Baptismal calling.

In the morning, the Candidates in Formation, as well as a selection of clergy from Wollaston Theological College and the Examining Chaplains, are making themselves available to preach – so invitations are welcomed. Please email pkling@perth.anglican.org to express willingness to vacate your pulpit, and we shall despatch preachers accordingly! This is particularly aimed at those parishes not already hosting a Candidate in Formation.

In the evening, at 5pm, the Cathedral Church of St George is hosting a service of Choral Evensong on the theme, at which the Vocations Advocate shall preach. All are welcome and indeed encouraged to attend – to celebrate and pray for the flourishing of vocations in this diocese, gathering together to mark the end of a weekend of dispersed activities.

Discernment to the Ordained Ministry

In every generation the Church looks for those for whom Christ's insistent call 'disturbs their settled lives'. On behalf of the Church, the Archbishop's Examining Chaplains discern whether that call might be to ordained ministry.

If there are members of your worshipping Community, school or agency who feel they might be called to ordained ministry please invite them to make contact with the diocesan Vocations Advocate, the Reverend Patrick King (vocations@perth.anglican.org).

The next Enquirers' Programme begins in October 2017.
