WORKING WITH DREAMS

John Sandford spoke of Dreams as God's forgotten language. He was not suggesting that it was God but rather that it was we who had forgotten it. How are we to interpret dreams? What do they mean? What are they saying to us? Sally Kester, an experienced Jungian Analyst will help us discern the meaning of our dreams. Bring a dream that has left you wondering what to make of it.

To that end, all clergy are invited to a day of joint reflection and discussion, led by The Reverend Canon Rosalind Brown, Canon Librarian at Durham Cathedral, to understand the diaconal nature of all ordained ministry. We will focus especially on the ministries of listening and hospitality.

ANGLICAN ECOCARE RURAL-URBAN PARTNERSHIP

EcoCare is organising an initiative to bring together rural and urban parishes. Urban parishes will be linked with a rural parish to help care for God's creation through tree-planting and other activities. By replanting communal and public areas as well as church land, we will help the ecological restoration of land. This is a great opportunity to connect with other sisters and brothers in Christ, foster new relationships and overcome the city-country divide.

PETS FOR PEOPLE COMING OUT OF HOMELESSNESS

Pets can be important companions, especially for residents of St Bartholomew's House as they transition from an experience of homelessness to long term stable accommodation. The benefits of a companion pet to mental health can be immense, but the cost of a pet, even a rescue pet, can be out of their budget. Parishes might know of someone who needs to find a new loving home for a pet (dogs particularly), which could meet the needs of St Bartholomew's residents. DISCERNMENT TO THE ORDAINED MINISTRY

In every generation, the church looks for those for whom Christ's insistent call 'disturbs their settled lives'. The Archbishop's Examining Chaplains pray that God will move the hearts and minds of many to consider discerning an ordained ministry. If there are members of your worshipping community, school or agency who might be thinking of a path to ordained ministry, please invite them to contact the Archbishop's Examining Chaplains' Committee through its Chair, the Reverend Canon Dr Philip Raymont.
