In this time two accredited trainers will work with the group to provide information and experience of the three genres of stories in Godly Play, the role of the storyteller, the role of the doorman, the Godly Play space, materials, response time, spirituality of the child, forming and maintaining a respectful story circle community, the history and practice of Godly Play and much more. The core and each session must be attended to achieve accreditation. Aliens and Strangers

‘I expect to die in bed, my successor will die in prison, and his successor will die a martyr in the public square.’ Some have deemed this well-known quote from Francis Cardinal George a little alarmist, and perhaps it is. There is, however, no avoiding the fact that as our culture continues to secularise, the church is increasingly being pushed further to the margins. We can’t rely upon the cultural capital that we have traded on in the past; in some cases, we can’t even rely upon a general feeling of goodwill. Our identity as aliens and strangers in the world is something we can only expect to feel more keenly.

And so the question is: how will we inhabit that space faithfully? How will we continue to bear costly witness from the margins? How will we maintain our strange identity as citizens of another Country, while speaking of that Country to neighbours who have never heard of it, or who are disinterested in it, or who despise it, and yet who continue to feel, as Chesterton put it, “homesick while at home”?

Fortunately, our time is not the first in which the Church has had to engage with these questions. Indeed, it has been engaging with them from its beginning. Come to clergy school to engage scripture and the tradition, and consider what it means for us to be aliens and strangers in 21st century Australia.

Save the Date: Vocations Sunday

This year Archbishop’s Examining Chaplains and the Diocesan Vocations Advocate are encouraging all worshipping communities to put aside one day on which to reflect particularly on the theme of calling and vocation. This may have a focus on discerning a call to ordained ministry – but is a chance also to reflect on the wider Christian vocation to live out our Baptismal calling.

Sunday 2nd July 2017

In the morning, the Candidates in Formation, as well as a selection of clergy from Wollaston Theological College and the Examining Chaplains, are making themselves available to preach – so invitations are welcomed. Please email pkling@perth.anglican.org to express willingness to vacate your pulpit, and we shall despatch preachers accordingly! This is particularly aimed at those parishes not already hosting a Candidate in Formation.

In the evening, at 5pm, the Cathedral Church of St George is hosting a service of Choral Evensong on the theme, at which the Vocations Advocate shall preach. All are welcome and indeed encouraged to attend – to celebrate and pray for the flourishing of vocations in this diocese, gathering together to mark the end of a weekend of dispersed activities.

Discernment to the Ordained Ministry:

In every generation the Church looks for those for whom Christ's insistent call 'disturbs their settled lives'. On behalf of the Church, the Archbishop's Examining Chaplains discern whether that call might be to ordained ministry.

If there are members of your worshipping Community, school or agency who feel they might be called to ordained ministry please invite them to make contact with the diocesan Vocations Advocate, the Reverend Patrick King (vocations@perth.anglican.org).

The next Enquirers' Programme begins in October 2017.
