

The Reverend Dr Chris Mulherin

Can Science and Religion be Respectful Friends?

Date: 17 July 2017

Time: 5.30pm

Venue: Centre for Ethics at Christ Church Grammar School

The Reverend Dr Chris Mulherin is an Anglican minister with a background in engineering, philosophy, and theology.

Chris's doctorate dealt with the relationship between scientific and other knowledge claims such as those of theology. He was recently appointed as the executive director of the Institute for the Study of Christianity in an Age of Science and Technology (ISCAST).

On 17 July, Chris Mulherin will be a guest of the Centre for Ethics at Christ Church Grammar School. He will address the staff and take a Year 12 Philosophy class. He will give a public talk in the senior Common Room at the school. His topic will be on the ways in which science and religion can be respectful friends. The one hour talk begins at 5.30pm.
