From the Archbishop

I have been asked by some lay people for prayers for the Diocese as we approach Synod. Thank you to Elizabeth Smith for these prayers. I hope you will use them at your place alongside the daily prayer diary.

Praying for the Diocese

God our wisdom and our strength,
we pray for your Church in this diocese
as we face challenges and change.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

Renew our love for one another in every part of diocesan life.
In our schools, caring agencies and parishes,
on our boards, committees and councils,
refresh our relationships with gracious listening.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

Where the wounds of our past are still painful,
bring healing and forgiveness.
When the shape of our future is slow to emerge,
bring patience and imagination.
When our resources are limited, and we face big challenges,
provide for us.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

At Synod, when we legislate,
may we seek the mind of Christ with simplicity and discretion.
When we make policies,
may we call forth the best in one another in the unity of the Spirit.
When we discuss today's big issues,
may your justice and truth be made known as Good News for everyone.

Lord, hear us. Lord, hear our prayer.

To Archbishop Kay, and all who share with her
the responsibility of shaping our diocesan life,
give clear vision, good timing,
and constant trust in your own abundant care
for the Church you love,
the Body of your beloved Son
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2019 Year C Lectionaries are in stock and available now at St Johns Books Fremantle. Lectionaries can be ordered and collected from Synod and spares will be available on the Synod weekend. Parish discount price is $11.50. (RRP $13.95). Lectionaries will also be available at the bookshop in Fremantle.

PREACHERS' DAY OUT: PREACHING POETICALLY AND PROPHETICALLY

In Advent, we hear again the preaching of the prophets as they require that God's people 'prepare' for the God who comes. Both in the prophetic utterances, and in some of the great hymns and praise of the church, we hear remarkable poetic outpourings (not least as the season culminates in the Great O Antiphons) to engage heart as well as mind in that preparation. This day will provide a time for preachers to reflect on how their own Advent preaching might prophetically challenge and poetically inspire - and not only in the time of Advent.

DISCERNMENT TO THE ORDAINED MINISTRY

In every generation, the church looks for those for whom Christ's insistent call 'disturbs their settled lives'. The Archbishop's Examining Chaplains pray that God will move the hearts and minds of many to consider discerning an ordained ministry. If there are members of your worshipping community, school or agency who might be thinking of a path to ordained ministry, invite them to contact the Archbishop's Examining Chaplains' Committee through its Chair, The Reverend Canon Dr Philip Raymont.
