THE WOLLASTON CERTIFICATE IN THEOLOGY - TERM 1 OFFERINGS 2020

ELECTIVE UNIT - Anglican Studies
This unit explores the development of Anglican faith and life from Christian origins in Britain/England to the present worldwide Communion. Anglicanism in the Australian context will also be studied, and there may be a focus on Anglican understanding of education. The Warden of Wollaston Theological College, The Reverend Dr Gregory Seach, coordinates this unit.

Thursday evenings, 12 March - 2 April; 6pm - 8pm
Wollaston Theological College, Mt Claremont
$120 for credit; $80 audit

ELECTIVE UNIT - Introduction to Youth Ministry
In this elective unit, coordinated by Mark Davis, ACYM’s Team Leader, you will experience high quality, practical training that blends elements from Missiology, Practical Theology and Youth Work. The module will explore the difference between Youth Work and Youth Ministry, compare the Incarnational and ‘hit-and-run’ models of delivery, how to start right and finish well, and whether youth ministry should be fun.

Thursday evenings, 13 February - 5 March; 6pm - 8pm
Wollaston Theological College, Mt Claremont
$120 for credit; $80 audit

ELECTIVE UNIT – Transforming Injustice
The Anglican Communion’s fourth ‘mark of mission’ is to transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and pursue peace and reconciliation. This unit taught by the Reverend Chris Bedding, is designed to equip students to contribute to the church’s work of transforming injustice. Students will be introduced to some of the Biblical foundations for the work of transforming injustice, and developing a life of nonviolence, based on the principles of nonviolence practised by Christians throughout history. Case studies and hypothetical situations will be explored, in order to give students the opportunity to apply their learning.

Tuesday evenings, 3 - 31 March; 7pm - 9pm
St Cuthbert’s Anglican Church, Darlington
$120 for credit; $80 audit

All units can be taken via in-person seminar, or fully online. To find out more please contact Wollaston Theological College via email info@wtc.perth.anglican.org or call 9425 7270.

ANGLICAN OVERSEAS AID
Anglican Overseas Aid (AOA) has produced their annual free Advent reflection booklets again and they are now available to order. This year AOA has focused on how profound the implications of God coming to us are. They have therefore entitled the reflection ‘A Radical Advent’. As they say, ‘for us ‘radical’ is the adjective that best describes Advent’. The booklets can be used as a personal reflection, a small group study guide or as a resource for the whole church. They have again also been translated into Mandarin Chinese. Click the link to order your copies: anglicanoverseasaid.org.au/2019-advent-reflections/

HOLIDAYING ON LAKE COMO, ITALY
Should you be considering a trip to Italy and to the region of Lake Como, you might like to consider calling in on the Church of the Ascension at Cadenabbia. The church is open daily and their regular Sunday morning service at 10.30am is in English. The church was built by residents and holiday makers back in the 1890s and it is one of the important land marks of Cadenabbia. More information can be found at churchonlakecomo.com.

‘JOURNEYING WITH GOD’ – A GUIDED HOLIDAY RETREAT ON LAKE COMO, ITALY
Led by Bishop Michael Colclough on 11 - 16 October 2020 at the Church of the Ascension, Cadenabbia. ‘Journeying with God’ recalls the 6th century Irish monk, St Brendan’s plea, ‘Help me to journey beyond the familiar and into the unknown’. Cost is 895 euros which covers all accommodation, full board and material for all sessions. To book and obtain more information email Jeannie Willan on jeanniewillan@gmail.com

DISCERNMENT TO THE ORDAINED MINISTRY
In every generation, the Church looks for those for whom Christ’s insistent call ‘disturbs their settled lives’. The Archbishop’s Examining Chaplains pray that God will move the hearts and minds of many to consider discerning an ordained ministry. If there are members of your worshipping community, school or agency who might be thinking of a path to ordained ministry, invite them to contact the Archbishop’s Examining Chaplains’ Committee through its Chair, The Reverend Canon Dr Philip Raymont.
